HAPPY LABOR DAY

For many, Labor Day simply means BBQs, swimming, boating and then back to school. Let us not forget that the founders of this holiday in the 19th Century were looking for a means of unifying union workers and a reduction in work time. The organizers for this first Labor Day were interested in creating an event that brought different types of workers together to meet each other and recognize their common interests. And, although it may not be a day of rest for all, this holiday was designed for hard working people as yourselves. Wishing all of the maritime trades a happy and safe Labor Day!
